ABOUT IRIS SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT

IRIS is a Swedish NGO and a UN SDSN Youth Member, founded by a group of people with a common vision; to build greener, healthier, and more sustainable communities. We provide non-formal and intercultural learning experiences in order to enhance sustainable development and encourage young people to become active and transformational agents of their communities.

MISSION & VISION

Our mission: To raise public awareness of issues, problems, opportunities, and solutions related to environmental, economic, and social sustainability.

Our vision: To support initiatives that boost the process of environmental transition within the EU, through social inclusion, actions on sustainability, and youth empowerment.

Athens Green Guide is an incentive based on the triptych of Recycle, Reuse, Reduce and aims to include businesses that prioritize sustainability practices and zero-waste philosophy.

Specifically, Athens Green Guide it includes businesses according to three main categories: vegan or vegetarian restaurants and food related services, second-hand shops, thrift shops or kilo-shops, products made by recyclable, biodegradable or non-plastic materials, zero waste products, and fairtrade and ethical products.
